I heard they were married by a minister before he died. He didn't know the particulars; he left three children under 16 at date of his death, Moses, Elijah and Jacob; I don't know their ages; I know Clementine has not remarried since soldier died and has owned no property or had any source of income save her own labor since his death. I make that affidavit, but only know the facts herein stated.

I am not related or interested.

I fully understand your questions and my answers are correctly recorded.
