

1105 Preston St.

Baltimore Md.

June 21, 1906.

Dear Sir,-

I received the note you sent me.

You seemed to speak as if

I am financing the agreement.

It is true that I had the note sent much since I left the army.

I have spent so much money by doing that I sloped. For I thought that winter I would die

I was so sick, I would rather help