

I can't just remember -
 I touched the pen and so did
 Chas. Ingers & James Dersay.
 I was sworn by a squire, I forgot his name. He was there in Mr.
 Floyd's office. I forgot now. It appears like he was in the Court too.
 But I forgot. I know I was sworn by a man I thought was a squire.
 The man who wrote the paper did not swear me - I disremember if any one was sworn with me.
 I think I left the paper with the squire. I can't say for sure though and I am not sure if the squire was in Mr. Floyd's office or not. Yes, I am sure I left the paper with the squire wherever he was.
 I touched the pen before the squire.
 I have understood your questions
 & my answers are correctly
 recorded.

(Ref. 6)

I hear you read my ~~personal statement~~
 I never knew Clint before the war. I don't know if he was in Co. D or not, I forgot. But now think that the correct Company. I didn't know what his army complaint was. Some of the others may be able to tell you that. What I have told you to-day is just what I know about him.
