Clut is not a man of any vicious habits. Can't say how much he can work - I have made a statement for him about 2 or 3 yrs ago. I think it was at Mr. Sloyd's office. I am not sure if I went to his old place on Lexington St. or to his present office, Cor. St. Paul & Saratoga Sts. Think Clut. was with me. I saw Mr. Sloyd - and a young man with glasses. Don't think the young ^{lady} was in - But I am not sure - Think I made the statement - to Mr. Sloyd - Don't remember if he read it to me - Don't remember if I touched the pen - I may have - I was sworn at the squire's. That was opposite the C. H. Don't know his name - Have only been there once with Clut.

Q Did anyone in Mr. Sloyd's office swear you? - A - No sir. I have seen a young man there with a stubby brown mustache. Don't remember if he was there on that occasion or not. Don't remember that he ever swore me.

Q Was you sworn at all to that affidavit & by whom? - A - I was sworn but it was at a squire's & I don't know - I hear you read my statement. I never knew if Clut. was ever at Smithville - I was. My statement to day is correct
