

whenever I would meet him.
I have seen him occasionally every month, at least, since the war.
Sometimes I see him two or three times a month.

Q. Is he able to do half work?

A. I couldn't say, for when I see him he is walking about.

He does not drink and his disabilities are not due to vicious habits.

I made former statement at Mr. Sloy's office. Don't know who wrote it. Don't remember if I touched the pen - Can't say if I was sworn or not.

Chut. complains more now than he did when he returned from the army. I have heard you read this deposition fully understood your questions and I am correctly reported
