

Inv. Ctf. #664,927.
James Armstead,
Co. I, 39 U. S. C. Vol. Inf.

May 28, 1912.

Respectfully returned to Mr. Dalton, Chief of Board of Review, I believe this comes under the head of those claims of which the Commissioner spoke this morning, in which it is not necessary to make a call as to length of furlough.
Everything appears to be straight in this case. In the report from the War Department of May 24, 1900, it appears that claimant applied for furlough from May 5, 1865, for 25 days, to visit his wife. In report of
