

Claim No. 775,665 of James Armistead, late private of Company 2 Regiment, 39th Volunteers.

State of Maryland, City of Baltimore.

On this 22 day of August A. D. 1890, before me, a JUSTICE OF THE PEACE in and for the State and City aforesaid, personally appeared Frank Dutton residing at No. 1007 Vine Street City of Baltimore, State of Maryland, to me well known, and whom I certify to be respectable and intelligent, and entitled to full credit and belief, and who being duly sworn according to law and thus deposeth:
My age is 45 years and I reside as above stated.

I have known the claimant James Armistead who served in the 23rd Regiment & got acquainted with him about one year after the war, when we lived in the same house together on Vine Street in this City. He suffered at the time of my first acquaintance with him with rheumatism and malaria and it seems to me that he has always been a very sick man ever since I have known him. I know that the claimant is disabled by his <sup>said</sup> disability for more than one half his time.

and I have no interest in the above designated claim.
