

My present is on file at the Pension Office Washington D.C.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this day by the above named affiant ; and certifi-a affidavit to said affiant , and acquainted — h m with its contents before — he executed the same. I further certify that I am in nowise interested in said case, nor am I concerned in the prosecution; and that said affiant is ^{not} personally known to me; that — he is a creditable person — and so reputed in the community in which — he resides. I believe from my questions, his appearance and general answers, my questions this demonstrates.

Witness my hand and official seal this 12 day of October 1889

Sign here. Robert J. Thurnby
Justice of the Peace

ADD SEAL HERE.

NOTE.—Should this be sworn to before any other officer than a CLERK OF COURT then the proper CLERK OF COURT must add his certificate of character on the back hereof, and not on a separate slip of paper.

STATE OF....., COUNTY OF....., ss.

I,, Clerk of the County Court in and for aforesaid County and State, do certify that, Esq., who hath signed his name to foregoing affidavit, was at the time of so doing a.....in and for said County and State, duly commissioned and sworn; that all his official acts are entitled to full faith and credit, and that his signature thereunto is genuine.

Witness my hand and seal of office, this.....day of.....18

Clerk of the.....

If a Notary Public (or Justice of the Peace) will put his signature and seal impress (if he has one) on a sheet of paper, and a Clerk of Court will certify that they are genuine, stating when his commission was dated and when it will expire, he can execute papers to be used in ONE DEPARTMENT ONLY during his term of office without authentication by Clerk of Court. Such Certificate for each Department where many authentications are required, will save much expense.
Several papers executed before one N. P. or J. P. on the same date need Co. Clerk's Certificate, on one only, if all are to be used in one case.
Write an affidavit just as you would write a letter, stating all the facts, circumstances, dates and places, as near as you can remember, and if of your own personal knowledge and observation, and state how you know what you say to be true.
