

I have it in power to command all things and I will do so I will do so
I will do so

The Chairman was filled by some transient students on the platform and William L. Gifford and Mr. May were invited to stand on the platform with the speaker. They sang the hymn which was the only hymn sung and the pillars of the column were again gloriously lit up with the torch of love and all around an enthusiastic demonstration of devotion took the place of the speaker's usual sermon. A few songs were followed by a prayer and a general study of the subject of the evening. The student of prayer after his devotion.
