

Page 6

about quitting the employ of Thomas Lanahan, He is a brown skinned coloured man, of medium size, and looks as well as the average man of his age,

Deposition B
Pages 18 to 19

Samuel T. Fisher, Claimant - was a Coachman and a healthy man to date of enlistment, he did nothing but drive Coach and take care of the horses before enlistment, was often at at house of Ants employer, and intimate with him, (claimant) knows nothing of Claimant's health while in service, Has been intimate with Claimant since discharge, and heard him complain of pains in stomach and sick stomach in all the years since discharge, Remembers that Claimant was sick while working for Ants Man or Lanahan, dont remember which, Dont know how much time he lost, Has known him to quit work a number of times since he has been carting and be off for a few days at a time, Cant give dates, or say how much time he lost in any one year, Claimant has done some hauling for him, and he has helped Claimant to load, that is the only way they ever worked together, General reputation of witness is good, is evidently a friend of Claimant and biased in his favour,

Deposition D
Pages 21 to 22

Levi Fredenicks, Was a neighbour and associate with Claimant to date of enlistment, Considered him a healthy man to that date, never knew him to have a days sickness