

Page 8

mant in final statement, he was present at my interview with Mann,

Deposition G
Pages 26 to 27

Samuel M. Wall, has known claimant from his boyhood, knew him as a laborer, Coachman and stableman, he was healthy to date of enlistment, knows nothing of him while a soldier, Was away from Baltimore five or six years after the war, did not see much of claimant when visiting Baltimore during that period, but since then he has complained of being weak and feeble, has complained of pains in breast and limbs, but principal complaint has been of weakness, that he was unable to load his cart, knew claimant to be entirely disabled two or three times for a week or ten days each, eight or nine years ago, and he had one attack eighteen months or two years ago, General reputation of witness is fair, he often works for claimant in helping to clean cellars and remove dirt from yards, and is strongly biased in his favours, he knows but little of claimant's health,

Deposition H
Pages 28 to 29

Charles Gola, Was intimate with Robert Barrill, Agent for the sale of Peruvian Guano, at Baltimore down to a period during the late war, became intimate with claimant as Coachman of said Barrill, Regarded claimant as a healthy man to date of enlistment, never knew