

worked for Arthur Mann and Thomas Lanahan since the War, dont remember that he was laid up for any cause during that time, Dont know that he has been troubled with disease of stomach since the war, Dont know whether Claimant was as competent a Coachman when he drove for Lanahan, as when he drove for M^{rs} Brown before enlistment, General reputation of witness is good,

Deposition R
Pages 45 to 46

James Fredericks, was well acquainted with Claimant before enlistment, - Never heard him complain of any disease or disability before that event, - Has heard Claimant complain of pain in his stomach and back frequently ever since the war, Dont know whether he was physically disqualified for purposes of manual labour during first eight years after discharge or not, - Has not considered Claimant more than half a good hand since he quit driving Carriage for Thomas Lanahan, General reputation of witness fair

Claimant was present while last deposition was taken, and heard Decourneys read over and fully explained,

The fact that Claimant was Col Bowman's private orderly, and hardly with the his Co after detail accounts for his lack of knowledge of fellow soldiers,

Page 13

Original witness William Henry Moore, is a resident-