

time he was especially free from any disease of stomach, and otherwise a strong, healthy, able-bodied man.

He should also obtain the testimony of a Com. Officer if possible and if not, then two or more comrades who know the facts who should state definitely and fully the place where, time when and circumstances under which said disease was contracted.

He should also obtain the best testimony