On this 16th day of Sept, 1913, at Baltimore, county of Baltimore City,
 State of Md, before me, W. H. Howell, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Nicholas Beale, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

1 I am 61 years old. Occupation
 2 housekeeper. Post Office
 3 527 Robert St., Baltimore, Md.
 4 I am the wife of Horace
 5 Beale, fish dealer, and I
 6 know William
 7 Annie Hale, over twenty years
 8 and been their close neighbor
 9 a long portion of this time
 10 and know that they have 11 lived together as husband and 12 wife and been so considered
 13 and not divorced since I
 14 know them. They have 15 been like two doves together.
 16 Annie Hale was not re-
 17 married since the death of 18 William Hale, and bears a
 19 good reputation in the church
 20 and on our block.
 21 I know nothing of the 22 marriage of these parties and 23 they were already together when 24 I got good acquainted with 25 them which was a little
 26 or twenty years ago.
 27 I am not related to claimant
 28 and have no interest in this 29 case. Your questions were
