Rheumatism Heart disease, and suffers very much with Diarrhoea, and saw him go to stools very often, at times when I would meet him he would become very dizzy in the head and suffer severely from spasms, in fact he has been suffering from these diseases from the time he contracted them to the present date 1890, and from these diseases he is totally unable to perform any manual labor whatever. I know these facts from my own personal knowledge observing him, by serving on the same vessel together and attending him during his confinement, as aforesaid, also by seeing him daily during his Naval service, and since his discharge to the present date frequently
