Annie T., widow
William Murray
U.S. Navy

February 16, 1920.

Mrs. Annie Tate Murray,
1228 French Alley,
Baltimore, Maryland.

Madam:

In your above cited claim for pension under the act of April 19, 1908, as amended by the act of September 8, 1916, there should be furnished:

A verified copy of the public or church record of ~~your marriage~~ to the sailor, or if no such record exists, the affidavit of the person who performed the ceremony, or, if that cannot be obtained, the sworn statements of at least two credible witnesses who were present at the marriage, showing the date thereof.

The sworn statements of at least two credible witnesses showing whether you or the sailor had been married prior to your marriage to him.

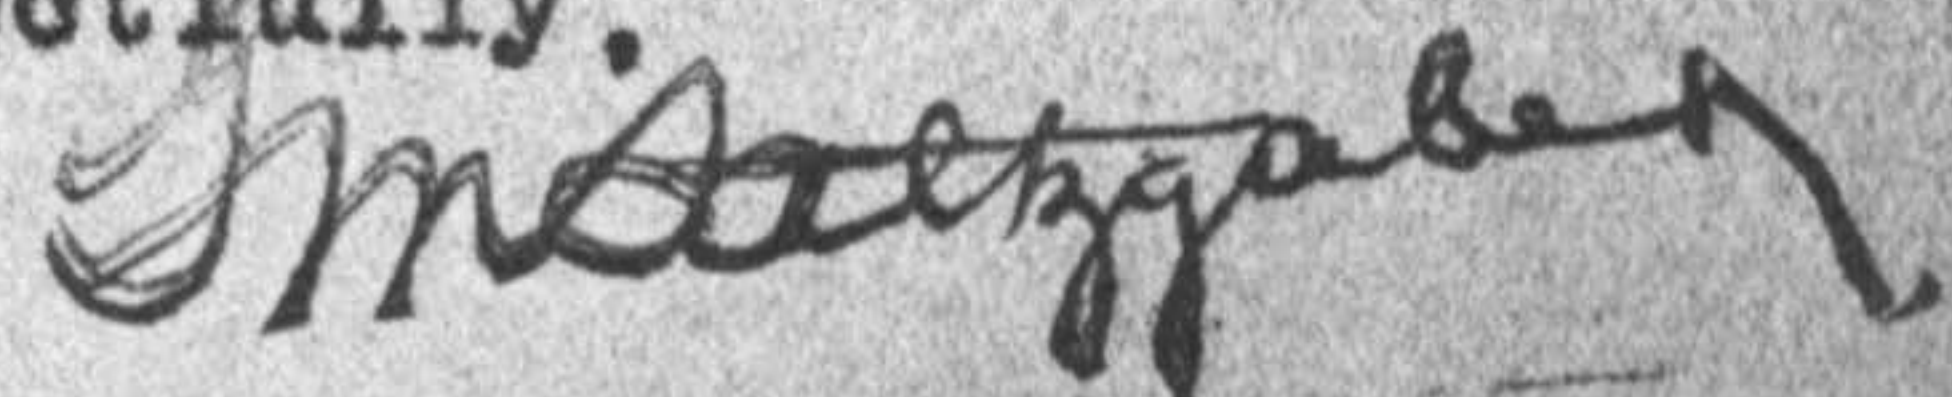

The sworn statements of at least two credible witnesses showing whether you and the sailor were ever divorced, and whether you and he lived together ~~as wife and husband~~ from the date of your marriage to him to the date of his death.

The sworn statements of at least two credible witnesses showing whether you have remarried since the date of sailor's death.

All witnesses should state their ages, post office addresses and means of knowledge of that to which they testify.

You were called upon for the aforesaid evidence in a letter from this bureau dated February 23, 1917.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner.
