

Also personally appeared George Chambers, residing at 952 Druid Hill Avenue and William A. Jackson, residing at 915 Tyson St, Baltimore, persons whom I certify to be respectable and entitled to credit, and who, being by me duly sworn, say they were present and saw John S. Barnes, the claimant, sign his name (or make his mark) to the foregoing declaration; that they have every reason to believe, from the appearance of said claimant and their acquaintance with him, that he is the identical person he represents himself to be; and that they have no interest in the prosecution of this claim.

Witness as to William A. Jackson's mark

The POST OFFICE ADDRESS (naming street and number in all large cities) of the applicant, attorney, and witnesses should be embodied in or accompany every application, and all evidence in each claim; and each change of residence of said parties, while communicating with the Pension Office or the pension agents, should be stated.

Pensions are, by law, exempted from any liability on account of the obligations of the pensioners, and no lien upon them can be recognized.

Testimony in support of allegations made in a declaration may be taken before any officer whose authority and signature are duly certified, and who shall disclaim any interest, direct or indirect, in the prosecution of the claim.

If executed before any officer other than a Clerk of a Court of Record, the certificate of the Clerk as to the official character and genuineness of the signature of such officer should be attached.
