DEPOSITION E.

Case of Elizabeth C. Rosier, No. 735,594

On this twelfth day of May, 1902, at Baltimore City, county of _____ State of Maryland, before me, Edwd Howard, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared William Green, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 73 years of age, my occupation is that of stove repairing, and I live at 544 West Biddle Street, Baltimore.

I have known Mrs Rosier the claimant for 30 years or more, that is soon after she married Mr Rosier - I knew the claimants husband, the deceased soldier from boyhood and I used to play with him as a boy though I was somewhat older. We were both raised at Centreville, Queen Anne's Co. Maryland. I cannot remember just how long it was before the war, but it was some time, and Mr Rosier went to live in Baltimore. I moved from Centreville to Queenstown, and having a little shop I used to come to Baltimore to buy goods. I saw him very frequently up to the breaking out of the war, but I did not see him so far as my memory carries me while the war was going on - I know that he went into the army because I lost sight of him and my acquaintances and his told me he had enlisted - I did not hear from him at all during the war - I saw him again about 3 months after he was discharged and from that time up to his death I saw him very often, and I worked with him and for him - I did not meet the claimant until about a year after she married Mr Rosier - I did not know her before her marriage but since about a year after that,
