

DEPOSITION G

Case of Elizabeth C Rosier, No. 735594.

On this fifteenth day of May, 190*2*, at Baltimore City, county of _____ State of Maryland, before me, Edward Howard, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared _____ Martha C. Sorrocks, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 75 years of age, my occupation is that of a laundress and my residence 371 W. Preston Street, Baltimore, Md.

I have known the claimant Elizabeth C. Rosier from the time she was a girl.
I was a neighbor and knew her and her mother intimately.

I knew her husband from the time he came home from the war and knew him well up to the time of his death.

So far as I know he was never married to any one before he married claimant, if he was I never heard anything about it.

As to claimant I am sure certain she was not married until she married the soldier Albert Rosier.

Q What name did you know her husband by A Albert Rosier, but some people called him Elby, but I knew him as Albert.

Claimant, to my knowledge, never had any property of any kind except the house 1309 Division Street, which she sold after her husband's death. She did not own the ground but had to pay a ground rent for it - I don't know how much she sold it for.

A. Sir, she has no income of any sort that I know of, except what she earns by laundry work. She works hard and is
