

in poor health and has to support her mother.

I see Mrs Rosin every two or three weeks, and I am certain that she has not remarried since her husband's death, nor has she lived or cohabited with any man.

I am not related, have no interest in her claim, have heard you read my depositions, have understood your questions and my answers are truly recorded.

Martha E. Rosin

Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 15th day of May, 1907, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

Edward Howard

Special Examiner.
