

DEPOSITION

Case of Alice E. Chambers W.O., No. 925,932

On this 19 day of July, 1900, at Baltimore, county of Md., before me, L. S. Perkins, a Special Examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Charles Robison, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

1 I am 62 years of age; p.c. address 442
2 St. Mary's St., Baltimore, Md.; laborer.

3 I served in Co. I, 19th U.S.C. vol. Inf., and was 4 well acquainted, in the service, with George 5 Chambers of Co. G of that regiment. We often 6 bunked together while on detail in the army.
7 He was quite a young chap, but I don't know
8 whether he was married or not, in war times.
9 I saw him living with a woman on Druid Hill
10 avenue in this city 25 or 30 years ago; don't 11 know her name, nor what became of her.
12 I don't know how many wives he had, if 13 any. No, I did not know Margaret Burnett, nor 14 do I know that any such woman was placed 15 in the insane asylum. I know nothing whatever, 16 as to whether they were divorced from each other 17 or not.

18 I have heard you read the affidavit signed by 19 me in this case, but I did not tell the writer
20 what he has put in it. All of that part about 21 Margaret Burnett and as to George Chambers'
22 marriage or divorce, was put in by the writer
23 to suit himself as I know nothing about it. No, 24 I do not know Alice Chambers. I only know
25 Ada Chambers, the big fat daughter of George 26 Chambers, but don't know where she is.

27 I am not related nor interested. I have heard you 28 read the above, have understood your questions, and my 29 answers are correctly recorded. The initial "W." on
