I know the Margaret Jackson, deceased personally with her when she was brought here to have the Court commit her to the prison by her father John Barnett (deceased) this was in August 1886 I think

(This Court had at that time no "Prison Report" to the other three, and after the Court committed her I took her to Springfield, Mass. - Boston Jail - where she remained until this Court took on "Prison Report" for the other three. This she was transferred here - about three years ago.

I had no personal knowledge of her when she was brought here to that her father - but I knew her father and mother - and as far as I know, I know she had not been married before she married a man named Chamberlain in Boston. Chamberlain gave name & do not remember the married Chamberlain in Boston - and and with him then for some years
