

DEPOSITION ACase of Alice E. Chambers W.O., No. 925,932

On this 18 day of July, 1900, at Baltimore, county of Md., before me, L. S. Perkins, a
Alice E. Chambers continued of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Alice E. Chambers, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

1 somewhere. Since then I heard it rumored that 2 she was alive, somewhere in Baltimore, but never 3 found out where she was.

4 The only child I had by the soldier who was 5 under 16 years of age when soldier died, is my 6 youngest one, Rivers D.D. Chambers, who was born
 7 here July 4, 1900. My husband, George Cham-
 8 bers, died here on June 26, 1909. I have not 9 since remarried. I was never married but once.

10 Yes, I think my husband sometimes wrote his 11 name George W. Chambers, altho he generally omitted
 12 the middle initial. He had a son George W.
 13 by his first wife. The boy served in the Spanish-
 14 American war, but he has disappeared, and may 15 be dead. I do not know what has become of 16 the daughter Ada.

17 I had a certificate of marriage withon a 18 seal on it, which my attorney told me was of 19 no value. I wrote to Leesburg, Va. for a tran-20 script of my marriage record, but never 21 heard from it. Two witnesses to this mar-
 22 riage are still living: Carrie Scott, of Riesters 23 town, Md., and her sister, Julia Clagett, now in 24 New York city.

25 I never heard that my husband tried more than 26 once to get a divorce from his wife Margaret, 27 never heard of any action in the case subsequent 28 to October, 1885. No, I do not know where 29 I could find any witnesses or evidence bear-
