

with a An order and shut the door in my face.
 Besides this, <sup>my</sup> daughter has said repeatedly that I should not live with her or in the same house with him, and I would be <sup>in</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>house</sup> I had to do it. I am alone and have to support myself and it does seem to me that I am entitled to some support from him when he spends it upon others as as himself. I am a respectable woman & have always kept myself so. I have my marriage certificate before you now, and have offi-davits from witnesses as to my character and being literally turned out of his house, and don't see how I can get them together again, & if I did they would testify to the same thing, and have not money to pay for them again, much less employ an attorney. If your Examiner would look into it he would find out the truth, and say under oath that anyone who denies what I have said speaks falsely. It is with you.
