

three children by her before the death of my mother. The certificate by which my mother & father were married had become lost during the war & after ward she got a copy which she used in getting her bounty money and I think that copy is now in the possession of my oldest brother John George employed in the store of Seth Hopkins on Balt. st. I know that the papers of my mother were put into his hands at her death and I suppose this certificate is with them.

I have been recorded correctly
