

Complaints I may have heard him make must have been a good while ago. The said claimant is a man of good reputation. He has always been regarded as an honest, upright man. I thoroughly understand your questions and my answers are correctly recorded in this deposition.

H. E. Nicholson
Deponent)

Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 23rd day of September 1894, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

Page 37 Deposition J.

6-515

L. C. Halsey,

Special Examiner.