

I was sworn by the Squire there I don't know his name. I don't know whether the man that wrote it up is the one that swore me but I know there was more than one had a hand in it.

I never in my life was sworn to any thing in my pension claim only at the Loyds office.

Do you know Thomas Howard?

I recollect some Howard. I don't know his first name. nor where he lives only it is in the N part of town. He never had any thing to do with my pension.

How did you come to go to the Loyds office?

Mr Virgil Hopkins an acquaintance of mine told me there was a good place to go. I remember of his telling me where the office was.

Did you ever sign any pension papers at your home. or at Hopkins oyster house on Warner st.

No. not that I know. No pension papers.

Where did you live when you first applied for pension?

I guess I was living on Henriette St. I lived on Russell st. before I moved to Henriette st.

No sir I never was at the Superior Court to sign or swear to any thing in my pension case. I don't recollect ever going to any court to swear to any thing in my pension case.

I do not know any such person as Mr. A. Campbell. I know Frank Rice a white man, about 30 some years old with light hair. He was with the
