on account of this disability and sometimes he wasnt. He reported at sick call for treatment. This disability lasted him all through the service. I distinctly remember hearing him complain of his limbs paining him. He could get about but at times he could not get about as well as the other men and so was excused from duty. I heard him complain in service also of a giddiness in his head - I cant tell you now where and when I first heard him complain of giddiness in the head. I recall it was while we were down south in service together but I cant give him place or circumstances. I cant recall that he had any other disease or disability in service. Yes I do too I had forgotten. I remember that while we were down at Brownsville Texas claimant had a disease of eyes. I dont know what caused it. I never knew or heard of him having any other disease and he was not a drinking man. His eyes were red and sore and stiff down there. I have no idea what caused
