Case of James D. Brooks, et al, No. 555350-On this 22nd day of January, 1896, at Easton, County of TalbotState of Maryland, before me W. H. Adreutinger, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appearedAndrew Campbell, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: Age about 53. Occupation Farmer. P.O. and Residence, Easton Md.

I served as a private in Co. B. 9th U.S.C.
Infy. for 3 yrs and was with it all the time except while I was wounded about Aug & Sept 1864.
I am drawing a pension - I first knew David Brooks in the Army and have not seen him since our discharge.

We were not teal or bunk mates but I knew him well.

I cannot remember of him contracting any wound or disability while in the Army.

Can't remember of him being sick or off duty -

No Sir. I cannot recall the fact & about his claim even after hearing his statement read -

I remember that he was well-bodied at our discharge -

No intent. Not related. Question understood & Answer carefully recorded - his
