No. Claim, _____

Cert. No. 555 350.

Claimant, _____

Soldier, James D. Brooks

Co. B, 9 Reg't. U.S.C. Vols

Respectfully, returned to Mr. Macaulay
Chief of Section.

Mr. Hensley, Rev.

Before final action in this case it is suggested that a Special Examiner make an examination, under order of claimant's family Bible, in which it would appear, an entry of his age was made, in 1890, from a memorandum, now lost, given him by his former owner. If the entry appears to have been made about the time indicated it would, in view of claimant's numerous and almost consistent prior allegations, support his claim of age 60, notwithstanding the adverse record.
