MRS MARY G. JOBES
1125 PARRISH STREET
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.

MADAM:

In reply to your letter, you are advised that your original claim for pension was filed July 1, 1895.

It was shown by evidence that at the time he assumed to have married you, the above named soldier had a wife from whom he was not divorced and who survived him.

This Bureau's desire to assist you in proving your claim is evidenced by an exhaustive special examination, but the fact of the soldier's prior marriage was established and your claim was therefore rejected of which you were fully notified May 24, 1896.

Your claim filed in 1912 was rejected on the same ground and no pension is due you.

Very respectfully,

Commissioner.
