

DEPOSITION *b*Case of Mary F. Jones, No. 668639

On this 31st day of January, 1899, at Atlantic City, county of Atlantic State of NJ, before me, R. W. Morris, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Lottie Windsor, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am about 40 years of age; my post-office address is 213 N Maryland Ave. Atlantic City, N.J.

I have known this claimant for four years. She and I occupy the house where she lives. I am a servant at Dr Brosby's. Occasionally I go home at night.

Wm Woodley is a lodger in our house for the past two months.

This claimant and I pay the rent of the house and the lodger pays one dollar a week. Our lodger is a young man. He gets his meals elsewhere.

This claimant's name is Mary F. Jones. She is a widow. She has not been married for the past three or four years, nor has she lived with any man in that time.

She earns her living by her work. Her reputation is good.

I never heard her called by any other name than
