DEPOSITION §

Case of Mary F Jones, No. 668639

On this 31st day of January, 1899, at Atlantic City, county of Atlantic
 State of N.J., before me, R. McMorris, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared.

Mary R Loomer, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 30 years of age; my post-office address is 903 Baltic Ave Atlantic City N.J.

I have known this claimant
 since I was a small girl
 in Baltimore and at Atlantic City.

I have been a neighbor of hers for the past five years. I worked in the same private boarding house "The Upton" now
 "The Howard" with her for three seasons 1892, 1893 & 1894
 She was chamber maid and I was waitress.

Her name is Mary Francis Jones
 She is a widow. I never knew her husband.

I never knew her in Atlantic City
 by any name than Mrs Jones.

She worked at the Seaside
 Hotel after leaving "The Upton" as a laundress. She was in Philad^a part of a year
 three years ago, I saw her once
 She was working at laundry work there.

Now she lives in a house near where I live. A lady who is a
