DEPOSITION ⁷¹Case of Mary F. Jobes, No. 668639

On this 31 day of January, 1899, at Atlantic City, county of Atlantic State of NJ, before me, B. W. Morris, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared Minnie Pitto, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am 30 years of age; my post-office address is "Seaside Hotel" Atlantic City NJ.

I have worked at this Hotel for ten years and I knew this claimant to be the head laundress in this Hotel for several years

I never knew her by any name than Mary F. Jobes

She told me she was separated from her husband; and she said she had a son in Baltimore Md

Later she told me her husband died and I know that she has not remarried since she came to Atlantic City and she is known as a widow. She never lived with any man. I visited her house.

I don't know of any man lodger

She Mrs Jobes and Mrs
 Lindsay have a house together

Mrs Jobes bears a very good reputation, and is a church attendant. I never knew any man to go with or visit her.
