Yes, sir I remember Jeremiah Jones who was a soldier in the 30 US C. Inf. I remember when he was married to Mary F. Waters. They were married in the house of my mother's house (Judith Broxton) and I was present and saw them married. They were married by old man Nattie Peck at night in the house on the corner of Arch and Raborg st. My mother my brother (Hamilton Broxton) and Ellen Armstrong are the only ones now living who was present at the wedding.
Neither of them were ever mar-
