

Sheleton. I worked in the Sunset House Hotel two or three years.

I have been in Atlantic City off and on for twelve years past, and all the time was at work either as laundress or chamber maid in a hotel or boarding house. I had no house when I was at work, but since I left the hotel I had to take part of a house. I have three rooms and I take in washing and earn my own living.

I have no property.
I never was divorced from my husband nor was he divorced from me.

My health prevents me from working in a hotel now.

I reiterate most positively that I have not remarried nor lived with any man as a wife since Mr. Jones' death. I am a regular attendant at church.

During the few months I lived in Philadelphia I worked at Brogan's restaurant, I was the laundress, and
