

GENERAL AFFIDAVIT.

State of Maryland, City Baltimore, County of Baltimore, SS:

In the matter of.....

ON THIS 27th day of May A. D. 1890; personally appeared before me,

Stephen S. Clark a Justice of the Peace in and for the aforesaid County, duly authorized to administer oaths

Samuel Handy aged years, a resident of Baltimore City in the County of Baltimore and State of Maryland

well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit and who, being duly sworn, declare in relation to aforesaid case as follows:

Since my discharge from the army I have not seen any of my former Officers ^{except the orderly Sergeant} and have no knowledge of their residence whatsoever. My former Captain was killed at Dup Bottom and the Company was left in charge of the Lieut's.

(NOTE. Affiant should state how they gain knowledge of the facts to which they testify.)

All the evidence I could furnish is from my comrades and that I have given in a previous affidavit.

I have known the said Samuel Handy ever long before the war I have known him every since about 30 years ago. I knew him when he was in the 1st Regiment Company C. and he is a person of very creditable character and which I know is really worthy of pension and who was disabled in the United S. Army. Samuel ^{mark} Irving 808 Leadenhall St

His Post Office address is 808 Leadenhall street Baltimore Maryland

..... further declare that no interest in said case and not concerned in its prosecution.
