

Pattemore Md. April 27. 1894
Hon Commissioner of Pensions
Sir:

I have the honor to submit herewith a supplemental report in the case of Rebecca Emolds widow of James Emolds, S. 39th Dec. Ct., #580,099, showing irregularities on the face of the Atty. of record, and under instructions contained in Commissioners order of March 14. 1894.

The principal irregularity in this case, additional to the fact that O. W. Beale & B. B. Tress, clerks for Lloyd, were made identifying witnesses without a previous knowledge of the clerk, is the false date of oath to the widows declaration for assumed invalid pension. As both ~~the~~ declarations of the widow were executed or prepared by A. P. Lloyd himself, and on the same day, I deemed it prudent to take his deposition fixing the responsibility therefor. The testimony of Eliza