I have known Rebecca Ennolds 40 years.
She was not married when I first knew her. I remember the very Sunday night she was married to James Ennolds. I was not at the wedding but I know she was married. She was married by Rev. Thomas Jackson who came here from the Eastern Chapel. I knew him very well. I was a young woman and when they were married.
I do not know the year they were married. It was a long time before the war I know. I have lived in the same house I did then ever since. They were married at Aunt Betty Dixons house right across the street from where I now live, and then lived. I knew a Mrs Gillis who went to the wedding but she is dead now. Also Peter Blake was there but he is dead. There is no doubt of the marriage so I have stated. I know they have lived together ever since as man and wife up until Ennolds died. They had children before and since the war. I know her child Catherine who is insane. I do not know Catherine's age, but
