

In the matter of the application of Emmeline Jolly, widow of John Jolly, for pension

State of Maryland }
Baltimore City to wit }

Be it remembered that on this 28th day of September 1878 before me the Subscriber a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for Baltimore City personally appeared John F. Brown, M.D. who being duly sworn deposes and says as follows: That he attended the said John Jolly during his last illness and that the said John Jolly died on or about the day of August, 1871, that he knows this of his own personal knowledge from having seen the said John Jolly lying a corpse at his late residence in Baltimore City aforesaid, and the deponent further states that he has no interest in this claim
