

State of Maryland
County of Baltimore SS:

On this 12th day of March A. D. 1887, before me, a Judge of the Peace in and for the State and City aforesaid personally appeared John Weaver and Sibby Mitchell resident of Baltimore County of Baltimore and State of Maryland, to me well known, and whom I certify to be respectable and intelligent, and entitled to full credit and belief, and who being duly sworn according to law, declared that They were each personally acquainted with John Jolly late of Co D 7th U.S.C Troops and saw him immediately upon his return from the Army he was then suffering with cough and pains in his back and continued to so suffer from that time until date of death. He was entirely disabled from manual labor - he was not employed by any one being unable to work until death - and further deponents say that that Emeline Jolly widow of the aforesaid soldier and who is present at this writing - has not communicated or consulted with any one to our knowledge since the death of soldier. Official of John Weaver reside at 282 Hamburg St. I Emily Weaver reside at 248 S. Howard St Baltimore Md.

And we have no interest in the claim of Emeline Jolly for Pension
