

went away as a recruit during the war, and that he was in good health and was not married.

John R Gray of Virginia, Md, aged 65 and a merchant alleges that he knew the deceased soldier born about 1843 and saw him often until he left for the war, and that he was in good health and had been married and lost his wife.

James A Neaugh of Virginia, Md, aged 35 and a blacksmith alleges that he knew the deceased soldier who lived there and saw him often until he went away and remembers him as in good health, and that he thinks that while he was there he married.

This summary is a reflex of the evidence embodied in the report.

AK Council

Nov 7/83