

State of Maryland
County of Baltimore ss:

On this 31st day of Mar A. D. 1882, before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for the State and City aforesaid, personally appeared Amelia Mitchell resident of 211 S. Howard St County of Baltimore and Maryland, to me well known, and whom I certify to be respectable and intelligent, and entitled to full credit and belief, and who being duly sworn according to law, declared that she was personally & intimately acquainted with Jolid Jolly late of C.D. 72. S.C.I. from the date of his arrival home from the army up to time of his death. That when Jolly first came home she was living but a short distance from his house at which she used to visit. That she distinctly remembers that at this time (immediately after his return) she noticed that said Jolly was suffering from a terrible cough & looked decidedly consumptive. That she has nursed invalids suffering from Consumption & knows enough of the symptoms of that disease to tell when a person is suffering therefrom, that in her mind there was no doubt but that Jolly was Consumptive at time of his arrival home. From that time up to his death he continued to grow worse & finally died from same

And She has no interest in the claim of Mr Jolly for Pension
