I knew the Claimant well, long before he was married and knew her mother. I have never heard that she remarried after his death, and never heard that she lived with any man as his wife. Do not know much about her since they lived in Baltimore.

Yes, I was in the Soldier's Protective Society here and I remember he was sick at one time and we had to pay him weekly dues, but I cannot tell what disease he had.

2 Was he well during his service in the Army?
 A He seemed to be, except he had some little cough. It seems to me he was wounded once at one time but I cannot tell much about it - I have only a dim recollection about it.

I think he was wounded at Black Water River. Cannot say whether he was in any hospital while in the service.

I have understood your questions and my answers have been correctly recorded.
