DEPOSITION

A

Case of Hester Boston, No. 292014

On this 10th Sept day of 189, at County of _____

State of _____, before me, _____, a

Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared _____

_____, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says:

Working here in town he came to see me every Friday night and every other Sunday night.

Yes, he appeared to be always in good health. I first noticed he began to cough and spit up stuff after I married him. I do not know what caused his disease. He was a man of medium height, thick set, stout man.

After he was taken sick in his last illness he called a doctor, but he only lived about two weeks after he called the doctor. Dr. Kirby attended him. I cannot tell where the doctor lives now — he called my husband's disease lung fever — or pneumonia. No, my husband never had pneumonia before that to my knowledge.

I was married to William Boston June 10/1869 at Annapolis. I furnished a copy of the marriage record. My maiden name was Hester Hunsley. Neither was ever previously married. I have not remarried, or cohabited with any man as his wife or otherwise since my
