Baltimore, Md.
Sept. 11, 1922.

Mr. Elmer E. Miller,
Disbursing Clerk.

Dear Sir:

This check of my mother, Hester J. Boston, was received Tuesday Sept. 5, 1922, and on Wed. Sept 6th, 1922, she was taken suddenly ill, being too weak to sign her name, she was given a pen dipped in ink and she made the cross mark (X) and in a few hours later she died. I am writing to you for information you will give me on cashing the check, and thanking you for the same.

Hoping to hear from you in the near future,

I am

Respectfully yours

Mamie Gordon

(her daughter)
