

DEPOSITION

Case of Hester Boston, No. 292014

On this 18 day of July, 1899, at Baltimore, county of _____ State of MD., before me, N.N. Hill, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared.

Hester Boston C.C., who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to her during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says:

I am _____ years of age; my post-office address is _____

Supplemental Statement
 My husband's name was William Henry Boston but most people called him William. He had two uncles, one named William and the other Henry and he was named after them.

No, I cannot tell what has become of Dr.
Kirby. He had a drug store on the corner of Pratt & Paca Sts. and was also a practicing physician - he only treated my husband about a week, and had never treated my husband prior to his last illness that I know of. I do not know whether my husband ever worked on the wharf - he used to go down some days to get work on the wharf, but whether he ever worked there I cannot say.

Yes, two of my children died of consumption
 - I have two living.

Your questions understood and my answers correctly recorded.
