

DEPOSITION 6

Case of John Amthing, No. 761637

On this 2 day of Nov., 1899, at City of Baltimore, Md., before me, N. N. Kille, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared

Alfred Pratt

who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: That he age is about 59 years; post-office address, 17 E. Church St. City.

Prattman, occupation,

I have known John Amthing since during the war. He said I served in the Pennsylvania regiment, the 39 U.S. Inf., but not with the same company. He has now in some of this city, Baltimore, Maryland, and knows of, I saw him yesterday - I wanted to know of him whether I had ever seen a picture in his case, and he told me

I had. There were ~~there~~ a few days ago with reference to each other, and I had forgotten that I was a witness for him, and I asked him yesterday about it. He told me he got hurt when he was in the service, but he did not tell me what way he was hurt, and he was coming home like a soldier, back-ack and Amthing.

He told me yesterday that he had known him, he was the one before yesterday that he had mentioned?

A I do not remember that he was said anything about it before I met him yesterday, though he may have done so.

Q How long has he been connected with these matters to your knowledge?

A I cannot say.

Q Do you remember where I went when
