

DEPOSITION

13

No. 761637

John Canning

Case of

On this day of before me,

special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: That he age is years; post-office address, occupation,

know nothing about the constitution of the United States during that time of the year, was at Ebenezer Church on Monday morning at 10 o'clock - I do not know whether he joined that church. I did not after that time. No, he was not then walking with a cane.

I remember when I was checking again for missing - sometimes along in the 70's I saw him on the street and morning as I was going to work and he was walking along. I asked him what the matter was but he said "that he had no Bill". He has no case then. I was in the pension or months and I suppose he was in about the same length of time.

I am not prepared to say whether he has or has not had rheumatism since since his discharge from the pension - has not seen him very often of recall that while in the pension, when he told me he believed he had rheumatism - I told him there was nothing
