

DEPOSITION

Case of John Armstrong, No. 761637

On this 2 day of Nov., 1899, at N. H. Hill, State of N. H., before me, N. H. Hill, a special examiner of the Bureau of Pensions, personally appeared John A. D. T. Wilson, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this special examination of aforesaid claim for pension, deposes and says: That he age is 62 years; post-office address, 742 Waverley St. City.

father, occupation,

I served in Co. B 39 U.S.C. Regt. and John Armstrong was a member of the same company. I did not know him prior to our coming together. Since the war I have seen him a large time or so, but I have not seen him lately

- not since last summer.

I believe I made a statement in his claim for pension, at N. H. Hill's office. He did not make any statement in my claim. When I put in my claim I had not seen him for a long while. When I saw last summer at the camp meeting he was confirming of Armstrong. He seems to be working ship and the like of that. He is very hard work.

How long have he had this the same place which in the price

I know he was kind of grunting and know and I asked him what about him and he said he believed he had been made. That was while we were in front of John's house, Va. He showed him that of several times while in the prison
